It is agreed by you and between you and all other notified members of your party that you have been duly authorised by them all to enter into the booking in accordance with these Booking Terms and Conditions. The contract is effective once either the completed signed booking form, or in absence of signed booking form payment of deposit or by occupancy, continuance, is accepted or chosen to be accepted by LV with written confirmation, which is also acceptance of terms and conditions published or reviewed with agreement in writing or email, received with the required payment by LV on behalf of OBA and written confirmation of acceptance has been sent by LV on behalf of OBA to you. You are required to check the confirmation form carefully upon receipt and any issue with the contract raised before payment of deposit which is deemed as acceptance of contract. The Contract is subject to English Law and the jurisdiction of the English Courts.

2. PAYMENT

Our “concierge” services are payable by the hour or other periods by suitable prior arrangement and LV on behalf of OBA reserves the option of requesting payment in advance or on later formal request. Interest of 2% above HSBC Bank rate will be accrued on delayed payments incurred 10 days from the first formal request for payment.
